INSTRUCTIONS,

Containing conditions to be incorporated in the contracts to the extent the department may deem proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails; but on railroad and steamboat routes there is to be no more delay than is sufficient for an exchange of the mail bags.

2. On railroad and steamboat lines, and other routes where the mode of conveyance admits of it, the special agents of the Post Office Department, also post office blanks, mail bags, locks, and keys are to be conveyed without extra charge.

3. On railroad and steamboat lines the route agents of the department are to be conveyed without charge, and for their exclusive use, while travelling with the mails, a commodious car, or apartment in the center of a car, properly lighted, warmed, and furnished, and adapted to the convenient separation and due security of the mails, is to be provided by the contractor, under the direction of the department.

Railroad and steamboat companies are required to take the mail from and deliver it into the post offices at the commencement and end of their routes and to and from all offices not more than eighty rods from a station or landing. Proposals may be submitted for the performance of all other side service—that is, for offices over eighty rods from a station or landing.

Receipts will be required for mail bags conveyed in charge of persons employed by railroad companies There will also be "way bills" prepared by postmasters, or other agents of the department, to accompany the mails, specifying the number and destination of the several bags. On the principal stage routes, likewise, receipts will be required and way bills forwarded; the latter to be examined by the several postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of mail bags.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily explained three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connexion with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. Deduction will also be ordered for a grade of performance inferior to that specified in the contract. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalties, proportioned to the nature thereof, and the importance of the mail, may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in settling up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail; a quarter's pay may be deducted.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters or the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from or deliver it into a post office; for suffering it to be wet, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running a coach, car or steamboat on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the Post Office laws, or disobeying the instructions of the department; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the department to do so; for running an express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons or packages, conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

8. The Postmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may change schedules of departures and arrivals in all cases, and particularly to make them to conform to connexions with rail roads, without increase of pay, provided the running time be not abridged. He may also order an increase of speed, allowing, within the restrictions of the law, a pro rata increase of pay for the additional stock or carriers, if any. The contractor may, however in the case of increase of speed relinquish the contract, by giving prompt notice to the department that he prefers doing so to carrying the order into effect. The Postmaster General may also curtail or discontinue the service in whole or in part, at pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount dispensed with, whenever, in his opinion, the public interests require the change, or in case he desires to supersede it by a different grade of transportation.

9. Payments will be made by collections from or drafts on postmasters, or otherwise, after the expiration of each quarter—say in February, May August and November.

10. The distances are given according to the best information; but no increased pay will be allowed should they be greater than advertised, if the points to be supplied be correctly stated. Biddders must inform themselves on this point, and also in reference to the weight of the mail, the condition of roads, hills, streams, &c, and all toll-bridges, ferries, or obstructions of any kind by which expense may be incurred. No claim for additional pay, based on such ground, can be considered; nor for alleged mistakes or misapprehensions as to the degree of service; nor for bridges destroyed, ferries discontinued, or other obstructions increasing distance, occurring during the contract term. Offices established after this advertisement is issued, and also during the contract term, are to be visited without extra pay, if the distance be not increased.

11. A bid received after the last day and hour named, or without the guaranty, required by law and a certificate as to the sufficiency of such guaranty, cannot be considered in competition with a regular proposal reasonable in amount.

12. Bidders should first propose for service strictly according to the advertisement, and then, if they desire, separately for different service; and if the regular bid be the lowest offered for the advertised service, the other propositions may be considered.

13. There should be but one route bid for in a proposal. Consolidated or combination bids ("proposing one sum for two or more routes") are forbidden by law, and cannot be considered.

13. The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and residence of the bidder, (that is, his usual post office address,) and those of each member of a firm, where a company offers, should be distinctly stated.

15. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practicable, the printed form of proposal furnished by the department, to write out in full the sum of their bids, and to retain copies of them.

Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should bids once submitted be withdrawn. No withdrawal of a bidder or guarantor will be allowed unless dated and received before the last day for receiving proposals.

Each bid must be guarantied by two responsible persons.

General guaranties cannot be admitted. The bid and guaranty should be signed plainly with the full name of each person.

The department reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant, and also to disregard the bids of failing contractors and bidders.

16. The bid should be sealed, superscribed "Mail Proposals, State of ——," addressed, "Second Assistant Postmaster General, Contract Office," and sent by mail, not by or to an agent; and postmasters will not enclose proposals (or letters of any kind) in their quarterly returns.

17. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the department by or before the 1st day of August, 1860; but the service must be commenced on the 1st of July preceding, or on the mail day next after that date, whether the contracts be executed or not. No proposition to transfer will be considered until the contracts are executed and received at the department; and then no transfer will be allowed unless good and sufficient reasons therefor are given, to be determined by the department. In all cases the retiring contractor will be required to become one of the sureties on the new contract.

18. Postmasters at offices on or near railroads, but more than eighty rods from a station, will, immediately after the 31st of March next, report their exact distance from the nearest station, and how they are otherwise supplied with the mail, to enable the Postmaster General to direct a mail-messenger supply faom the 1st of July next.

19. Section eighteen of an act of Congress approved March 3, 1855, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mail shall be let "in every case to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guaranties for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation." Under this law bids that propose to transport the mail with "celerity, certainty, and security," having been decided to be the only legal bids, are construed as providing for the entire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode of conveyance necessary to insure its "celerity, certainty and security," and will have the preference over all others.

20. A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received, so as to interfere with a regular competition, after the last hour set for receiving bids. Making a new bid, with guaranties and certificate, is the only way to modify a previous bid.

21. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify the sufficiency of guarantors or sureties without knowing that they are persons of sufficient responsibility; and all bidders, guarantors and sureties are distinctly notified that on a failure to enter into or perform the contracts for the service proposed for in the accepted bids, their legal liabilities will be enforced against them.

22. Present contractors, and persons known at the department, must, equally with others, procure guarantors and certificates of their sufficiency substantially in the forms above prescribed. The certificates of sufficiency must be signed by a postmaster or by a judge of a court of record. No other certificates will be admitted.

J. HOLT,
Feb. 3d, 1860. Postmaster General.

For the Bedford Gazette.

Poor Tom.

How beautiful yon setting sun! He has almost finished his daily course. His last beams play around the summits of the eastern hills—and in a flood of glory and unwearied he sinks beneath the western wave. How delightful to contemplate such a scene! how grand! how sublime! It raises one above the things of earth—his thoughts above their common level. Nature seems rejoiced at his setting, sings for him an evening song and bids him a happy "good night". But though the scene be beautiful, for many it has no charms. Many who rose with him buoyant and gay, now writhe in pain and torment—raging fever scorches their pallid cheeks, and insatiate disease gnaws at their vitals. Others, disappointments have sorrowed and adversity wounded. And death—for "Pallida mors aequo pulsat pede pauperum tabernas, regumque terras"—has taken from the family circle some dear, tender one and straightened him for the grave. Over his cold lifeless form bend some broken hearted mother and bereaved father, or some sweet lovely maiden bathes his pallid cheek with tears. Alas! 'man was made to mourn.' The brightest dreams of his life remain unrealized—his fondest hopes are blasted by the killing frosts of time and weariness his every step attends. But—what means that wail of dispair resounding through the vale?—that deep. solemn, mournful, sound of the village church bell, breaking the stillness of eve? Ah 'tis death—with muffled step he entered the quiet village—and with unrelenting hand has destroyed the frail tenement of clay—Alas! 'Tis thee, poor Tom! Tis thee, whom death has taken from our number. He was a thrice welcome messenger to thee. Poor Tom! thy course is ended. And 'tis well for thee. For thou didst not possess gold with which to soothe down the cares of life, nor wealth to purchase the boon of enjoyment; poverty was thy companion. Upon a bed of straw thou didst repose thy weary limbs. Often did I watch by thy bedside, many weary nights I ministered to thee, and fanned thy burning brow, whilst I saw the ravages of disease trace their furrows on thy cheeks and the icy hand of death lay hold upon thee. Thou hadst no mother to soothe thy dying pillow, sister to kiss thy fevered lips, no maiden to mourn thee with her tears of love. But I was a friend to thee, a pitying sympathizing friend. Thy suffering was a pain to me. I wept when I saw thy body racked with pain, thy spirit tossed in anguish, I comforted thee, and strove to make thy dying pillow soft; if I failed to do so, it was not for want of affection, for I loved thee well. When thou didst drink the cup of affliction, eat the bread of sorrow, and no one came to ameliorate thy condition, or speak a kind sympathizing word to thee, I forsook thee not but staid the scalding tear with the cordial of sympathy, and the anguish of thy heart with the balm of affection. But now thou art gone. 'Tis true I behold thy form but tis lifeless and all that was lovely in thee has fled; that expressive eye is closed, that silvery voice is hushed in death, and those lips no more speak of love, of Christ, of heaven.

But all is well with thee, for thou wast the son of affliction. Even in the sunny morn of youth, when thy face was wreathed in smiles, and glossy curls in rich profusion fell around thy rosy cheeks, when thou wast full of joy, of hope, of bright anticipation; disease laid its cruel hand upon thee. But with Christian fortitude, thou didst bear the ills of life. No cloud rested upon thy brow, no fear from within alarmed thee. Thy spirit was calm and unruffled as a summer's day; for thou wast too meek to complain. No murmur ever escaped thy lips. Thou didst seem too good for earth—a flower planted in an uncongenial soil. But, now, in fairer worlds on high, thou shalt bloom forever. Thy end was peace, for thee death had no sting, the grave no fears. Oh! that it may be mine to die and leave this world as thou hast! And, now, as thou art gone, I will not forget thee. I shall see thee respectably interred. And, though I can raise no monumental pile to mark thy resting place, I will erect a marble slab in memory of thee, and plant upon thy grave the cypress and the rose. And, when the sod is green above thee, and the tall grass whistles in the wind, I will sit me down beside thy grave, and mingle my tears with the dust that conceals thee. Farewell, POOR TOM! Farewell!

DUNCAN.

THE PLAN TO RESCUE JOHN BROWN.—The idea of an extensive combination to rescue JOHN BROWN has been greatly ridiculed by the Republican and other journals, and the prompt and vigorous precautions of Gov. WISE made the subject of much affected merriment. It now turns out that, beyond all doubt, a combination existed of sufficient magnitude to warrant the steps which were taken by the Governor, and that it is owing to his decided and thorough performance of his duty that the most dangerous and formidable insurrectionists in the United States did not escape the just penalty of his crimes. ANDREW HUNTER, ESQ., who prosecuted BROWN and his followers, delivered an address at Richmond, a few evenings ago, in the Hall of the House of Delegates, and the Dispatch gives a sketch of it, from which we copy as follows:

As an evidence of the completeness of the system of espionage adopted, Mr. H. said that one of the spies in the employment of Virginia repeatedly slept in the bed with John Brown, Jr., and watched all his movements concerning his father. None who know Mr. Hunter will be likely to question the soundness of his judgment any more than the integrity of his character. He says that the report of five hundred men being organized in the mountains was first given by a member of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, and afterwards so confirmed as to leave no doubt of the fact. The spies reported the organization, and Mr. Hunter was enabled to find it out within forty-eight hours after the intended rescue was given up. It is remarkable that it was then, for the first time, that John Brown agreed to see his wife!—When she first proposed to come, his language was, "For God's sake, do not come here!" It will be remembered that, at last, John Brown himself admitted that there had been a plan for his rescue, and that it had only been given up on account of the overwhelming amount of military force which was concentrated at and about Charlestown.

The speaker read a letter from a clerk in a Philadelphia mercantile house, disclosing a plot in Ohio to rescue Brown, in which the writer begged that his name should not be disclosed to his employers, as they would discharge him if they discovered his pro-slavery feelings.

☞The "new code" adopted by the Maryland Legislature abolishes lotteries in that State. This reform is said to give much satisfaction in Baltimore, where the lottery business had become a great evil. The "Tom Thumb" of the Union, Delaware, is the only State that seems inclined to encourage this species of robbery. Some of her larger sisters ought to take her in charge and teach her morality.

☞Hon. Eli Slifer was, on Monday week, re-elected State Treasurer by the Legislature of Pennsylvania. He received 81 votes, and Hon. John W. Maynard, Democrat, of Lycoming, received 41 votes. This is Mr. Slifer's third term as Treasurer. The Philadelphia "Opposition" were sadly disappointed at this result, they having confidently calculated on the success of Hon. Henry D. Moore, to aid whom they traded off the clerk of the House and everything else.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The Democrats of Bedford county, are respectfully requested to assemble in Mass Meeting, at the Court House, in Bedford, on Monday evening of Court week, Feb. 13th, 1860, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the coming Democratic State Convention and to transact such other business as may come before them. A large attendance is desired. The conservative and Constitution-loving men of other parties are invited to attend.

By order of the Democratic Co. Com.

O. E. SHANNON,
Chairman.

A SPEAKER ELECTED AND DEFEATED.

WHO ARE THE DISORGANIZERS NOW?

On Friday last, a scene occurred in the House of Representatives at Washington, which is unparallelled in the whole history of political contests. The long struggle for the Speakership was brought to a close. The HON. W. N. H. SMITH, of North Carolina, an Old Line Whig, opposed to Know Nothingism and Black Republicanism, but in favor of a higher Tariff than the present, was chosen by a vote of 116 to 106 for Sherman, and 6 scattering. The news flew on lightning wings from one end of the country to the other. The suffering creditors of the Government lifted up their heads in hope. The people, sick of agitation and intestine quarrels, hailed the welcome message with feelings of liveliest joy. The patriotic and conservative men of the country exulted, for they felt that one of their own number was the Speaker of the Thirty Sixth Congress. But how suddenly a change came over the spirit of these good tidings! They were but as the April sunlight that breaks for a moment through the rift of obscuring clouds. Alas! for the honor, the dignity, the interests of Pennsylvania, four of her representatives, when they found that Mr. Smith was elected, withdrew their votes from him and cast them for Mr. Corwin, of Ohio! These four TRAITORS will be marked forever hereafter in the politics of the country. Let the blackness of darkness surround the record of their names! Let them be mourned as politically dead, as partizan desperadoes who died by their own hands!

E. Joy Morris,	People's Party.
B. F. Junkin,	People's Party.
John Wood,	People's Party.
G. W. Scranton,	People's Party.

These are the men, the leaders and spokesmen of the super-glorious, and extra-patriotic "People's" party, that have re-plunged Congress into the turmoil, the commotion, confusion, dissension and strife from which it was about emerging. These are the men, these independent, party-untrammelled, liberal-minded, dignified, conservative gentlemen, that by their treachery, puerile and silly though it be, undo the work of patriotism and bring chaos again to the halls of the National legislature. These are the men, the disinterested, high-toned, incorruptible patriots, who go to Congress for nought else but Pennsylvania's good, to obtain specific duties on coal and iron, to establish a Protective Tariff, and—when they have helped to elect a Henry Clay Tariff Whig, to un-elect him by changing their votes! These are the disorganizers. These, the enemies of the Democratic party, are responsible for the anarchy that reigns at the National Capital. Let them be marked and remembered.

"Oh! for a tongue to curse the slave,]
Whose treason, like a deadly blight,
Comes o'er the councils of the brave,
And blasts them in their hour of might."

The Secret of "Republican" Successes.

"Money makes the mare go," and it makes candidates go, too, especially the old hacks that have boxed the political compass and are now comfortably wallowing in the mire of Black Republican corruption. The following, which we find in our Eastern exchanges, will serve to illustrate:

HOW BLACK REPUBLICAN M. C'S ARE ELECTED IN MAINE.—The means employed to elect Republican Congressmen in Maine, and where such means come from, are being explained by Mr. Elder Peck, the defaulting Republican treasurer of Maine. He is making a clean breast of the defalcation, and, so far from implicating "Democrats high in office" in the transaction, he has made developments that go to the very heart of the Black Republican party. The Bangor Union is informed that Peck has made a statement that he expended $13,000 to elect Daniel E. Somes in the First Congressional district, $8,000 to elect Ezra B. French in the Third district, and $4,000 to elect Stephen C. Foster in the Sixth district, and $11,000 to one of the most prominent Republican leaders in Maine. Republican morals are at a very low ebb.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The February number of The Atlantic, has been received, and contains a variety of good things. We give the contents, 1. Counting and Measuring, 2. My Last Love; 3. A Shetland Shawl; 4. Roba di Roma, 5. The Amber Gods, 6. The Poet's Friends; 7. The Memorial of A. B., or Matilda Muffin, 8. Some Account of a visionary, 9. The Truce of Piscataqua, 10. The Maroons of Jamaica, 11. The Professor's Story, 12. Mexico. The editorial notices are clever and spirited, as usual. We notice, with pleasure, the decided improvement of the Atlantic Monthly since it became the property of Ticknor & Fields. It has thrown aside its former sectionalism, and may now be fairly considered the organ of American intellect. We will furnish the Atlantic and the Gazette both, one year, for $3.50.

AT HOME.—Hon W. P. Schell is at present on a visit to his family. He reports the prospects of the Democracy as very favorable.

Local and Miscellaneous.

—The scarlet fever is still prevailing in our midst. A number of interesting children have recently fallen victims to the disease.

—On Tuesday last, we were again visited by a snow-storm, and on Wednesday morning the prospects for sleighing were fine. The old saying, "As the day lengthens, The cold strengthens," seems to hold good just now.

—We are requested to call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Taylor and Mowry, in to-day's Gazette. They intend to adhere strictly to the letter and spirit of the notice.

—Our friend Jesse Wright, of Broad Top, the author of the Brown lyric, in this number, will excuse us for not publishing the whole of his excellent production, as it was too long for our columns. We were compelled to omit parts of it.

—The Philadelphia "State Journal" wants to know why we are solicitous about the existence of the "American" party, and desires a more satisfactory answer than the coat of tar and feathers we promised the editor when he abused and misrepresented Judge Kimmell.—As tar and feathers don't seem to be satisfactory to the "Journal" editor, how would tar and wool suit him? A man of his principles could certainly not object to the latter, and as our inquiries about the "American" party, had particular reference to the wool business, we now substitute that article for the feathers which are so distasteful to our friend of the "Journal."—We should have known that MR. ORWIG does not belong to the Shanghai wing of the Opposition and that he repudiates feathers.

—Messrs. S. Shuck & Co., have dissolved the partnership heretofore existing between them. The store and tannery will be carried on, in future, by S. & W. W. Shuck, and the coach-making business by G. D. & J. D. Shuck, under the name of Geo. D. Shuck & Co. See advertisement.

—"Glorious Victory," "Cameron sustained," and various other triumphant headings, introduce us to the accounts of the recent special election in Dauphin county, contained in the Opposition papers. The "Helperite" of this place, announces that Clark, the Cameron candidate was elected by 1200 majority. This is untrue. The official returns show that Clark has about 900 majority, being a Democratic gain of about 200 since last fall, when the Opposition majority in Dauphin was upwards of 1100. Cameron's man was beaten in every ward in Harrisburg, and in Cameron's own borough of Middletown. Harper's Ferry and "Buzzard Feasts" are unpalatable to the people.

—We cannot publish the communication of O. K., of Woodberry, as no known real name accompanied it. Give us your name, friend, and we will see what can be done for you.

—As we are rarely so "hard up" for something to read as to be compelled to peruse the columns of the Bedford "Helperite," the sweeping charge contained in that sheet, week before last, that the Democratic Commissioners had assessed the taxes too low, did not fall under our notice until a few days ago. This charge is an astounding one, when we remember the repeated assertions of this same sheet that the Democrats raised the taxes too high. We shall not go to the trouble of pointing out the falsehood of the Helperite, as it is plain and can be read of all men.

—We refer our mercantile readers to the card of McCulley & Orrick, Forwarding and Commission Merchants, Cumberland, Md., which appears in this issue. Messrs. McC. & O., are successors to the well known firm of Shriver & Co., and are represented to us as gentlemen well worthy of patronage.

—The public schools of our borough, will open on Monday next. Mr. J. W. Dickerson, of Lancaster, will superintend the schools, and Misses Isabella Ford, E. M. Montgomery and E. Bolinger have been employed as teachers.

NEW NOVEL BY JAMES.—We have received from Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, a copy of a new novel by the renowned G. P. R. JAMES, entitled "The man in Black." It is a domestic story of the reign of Queen Anne, and is of sad and touching, though fascinating interest. We consider it one of the best of the many novels written by James. It is neatly printed, on clear bold-faced type. Price, fifty cents.

HEROES AND PATRIOTS OF THE SOUTH.—This work, written by MR. C. B. Hartley, contains the lives of Francis Marion, William Moultrie, Andrew Pickens, and John Rutledge, and also sketches of the lives of other distinguished Revolutionary patriots and heroes of the South. The style is simple, easy and graceful, and the typographical execution is very fine. This work is published by G. G. EVANS, proprietor of Evans' Original Gift Book Enterprise, Philadelphia, who will send a copy to any person on receipt of one dollar, and twenty one cents to pay postage, and what is more, will forward a splendid gift to the buyer, worth from fifty cents to one hundred dollars.

THE BOOK OF PLAYS.—By Silas S. Steele. This is a neatly printed volume, containing a large number of well-selected plays and scenes from celebrated dramatic pieces. It is adapted especially to home theatricals and schools. Published by G. G. Evans, Philadelphia, originator of the gift book business, who will send it to any one (together with a handsome gift) on receipt of $1.00 and 21 cents to pay postage.

☞Just as we were going to press, we received the news that Mr. Pennington, Old Line Whig, of New Jersey, was elected Speaker. This is a killing blow to Black Republicanism.

FOR THE BEDFORD GAZETTE.

MR. MEYERS:—Bedford can at last boast of a Schoolhouse worthy of her fame, and one that does honor to her free and enlightened citizens. There will no more be occasion to pack away her children in ricketty, falling down structures and damp basements, ample provision being now made to secure to the children beautiful and wholesome rooms, with all necessary conveniences for teaching according to the most approved modern method. The Directors having determined to open the public schools in the new "Union Building," on the 6th of February instant (having secured the services of an enlightened practical Teacher as Superintendent, also of the necessary assistants) I took the opportunity of a few leisure moments to visit the new building. I was much gratified with it and its surroundings; it is beautifully located on the southern border of the town, on a lot of nearly two acres, neatly graded and with a fine southern exposure, in the centre of which the building is placed; it is plain and neat, and presents a chaste front, (without any useless ornamentation) of eighty four feet, including a wing at each end of some ten feet; in depth it is sixty four feet, the whole under a handsomely designed metal roof, surmounted with a neat cupola. On entering the building I found the wings fitted up for wardrobes, and with sufficient capacity to admit of ample stairway to the second story. On the first story I found four rooms of admirable dimensions for the purposes designed, being each 25 by 30 feet, ceilings of ample height to secure ventilation and the health of the inmates, and provided with ventilating flues and registers, all communicating by doors in the centre, giving the Superintendent free access;—each room is provided with the best black surface I ever saw, the work of Mr. Fowler, of Philadelphia; it presents the appearance and touch of an immense slate, and is handsomely framed in the wall. On ascending the stairs I found two rooms in front, similar in size, arrangement, and conveniences, blackboards, &c., as those below, making six rooms of the capacity mentioned; and on the western side an elegant chamber, sixty feet long by twenty five wide, which until wanted for school rooms, can be used for a general assembly room on public occasions; it has also all the requisites of the school room. Thus I found the building of sufficient capacity for eight schools of from 50 to 60 pupils each, which will fully meet all the wants of the Borough. There is a fine cellar under the whole building, and it is purposed to plant the grounds with trees in the spring. The building in all its details, appears complete. The Board of Directors have been active and energetic in prsecuting this work, and must necessarily have spent much time and labor in accomplishing it. Enlightened and liberal views appear to have governed them in all their plans. It is proposed to conduct the common Schools on the "Union Graded Plan," under the direction of a Superintendent, who is said to be a master workman, and then, when the schools are fully organized, with a full corps of Teachers, and a session of nine months in the year, the good time will have come for which the friends of education have so long wished, and the citizens of Bedford will no more be subjected to sneers and contemptuous remark, for their want of "spirit" in this direction. The blessings of Education will then like a mantle, fall upon and cover all alike. I will conclude by expressing my great satisfaction in what has been done, and prophesy that it will not be long until the same sentiment will be unanimous among our people.

Teachers' Institute.

Agreeably to previous notice, the Teachers' Institute of Bedford county, assembled in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church, on the 28th of December. Quite a number of teachers from different parts of the county were present. The meeting was organized by electing the REV. GEO. SIGAFOOS, as President; J. G. FISHER, vice President, M. A. POINTS, Secretary, and Henry Baker, Treasurer. A Business Committee was then chosen to act for the current year, composed of the Rev. H. Heckerman, J. G. Fisher, Jno. Palmer, J. W. Shuck and H. Baker.

The subject of Orthography was then introduced for discussion, by the County Superintendent. The subject was ably discussed and many valuable suggestions as to the best methods of teaching this important branch, were made by the Superintendent, Fulford, Sigafoos, Points, Fisher, Palmer and others. On motion adjourned, to meet at 6½ o'clock in the evening.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. Palmer delivered an able address on education. The subject of School government came next in order. Quite an interesting discussion sprang up in regard to corporal punishment. Messrs. Baker, Fulford, Shuck and Palmer advocated the rod; Messrs. Fisher and Points were opposed to it. The Superintendent remarked that the school should be governed like a well regulated family, and that cases may occur in which it is really necessary to use the rod; but it should be used only when all other proper means of government have failed. Maj. S. H. Tate then made a very kind and encouraging address to the teachers and invited them to hold their sessions in the Court House.

THURSDAY, DEC. 29*th*.

MORNING SESSION.

Institute met in the Court House. Prayer by the Co. Superintendent. The subject of Articulation and the Elementary Sounds, was then discussed by Messrs. Baker, Sigafoos and Heckerman. The Rev. John Lyon also made some very appropriate remarks on this subject.

A reading class was then conducted by Mr. Lehman. A number of gentlemen and ladies also read, and various criticisms were made.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Mr. Palmer delivered a lecture on English Grammar, upon which subject a discussion arose, participated in by Messrs. Points, Sigafoos, Fisher and the Co. Superintendent.

Mr. Geyer then explained the principle contained in the division of Vulgar Fractions.

The principles of the Rule of Three were then discussed by Messrs. Sigafoos, Points and Heckerman. Decimal Fractions came next in order and were demonstrated by the President and others. After a number of short speeches, adjourned, to meet at 6½ o'clock in the evening.

EVENING SESSION.

Quite a number of citizens present. Mr. Fisher lectured on Geography, and, with some of the teachers present, gave some examples of concert recitations in this useful branch of study, which were very interesting.

Mental Arithmetic, by Mr. Geyer, was the next subject in order. Mr. Heckerman then delivered an address on Popular Education as embraced in our system, which was attentively listened to and well received. Several committees on Books then read their reports which were adopted. In their reports Brown's Grammars, Greenleaf's Arithmetics and Monteith's and McNally's Geographies, were favorably spoken of and recommended to the Directors and Teachers of the county.

The following resolutions were then adopted:

Resolved That we heartily approve of Teachers' County Institutes, as an effective means to qualify for teaching and also to improve those already in the profession; and that we, as a body of Teachers, will endeavor to be practical illustrations of the benefit of the same.

Resolved, That we will sustain our County Superintendent in his well directed efforts to sustain the school system, and especially approve of the energy and perseverance he has exhibited during the period he has held office.

Resolved, That those teachers not connected with the County Institute, are not "live teachers," and care more for the "pocket than for "improvement."

Resolved, That the Editors of the Gazette and Inquirer, be requested to publish, in their respective journals, the proceedings of this association.

M. A. POINTS, Secretary. } GEO. SIGAFOOS, President.

SONG.

BY JESSE WRIGHT, OF BROAD TOP.

Air.—"California."

Come all ye black republicans, I'll sing to you a song,
It is about high treason, which you have preached so long.
For you're always mobbing, mob, mob, mobbing,
For you're always mobbing, with your negro mob.

You begun it in Missouri, to Kansas then you fled,
Harper's Ferry is the place where your leaders got cold lead.
For you're always mobbing, &c.

Oh! ye slippery black republicans, you're surely in a fix,
You've been a negro mobbing since the year of 'fifty six,
For you're always mobbing, &c.

Oh! ye traitor black republicans, you've brought us to disgrace,
By warring 'gainst your country, your native home and place.
For you're always mobbing, &c.

On the twenty-third October, all on a Sunday night,
You went to Harper's Ferry, fellow citizens to fight.
For you're always mobbing, &c.

You seized upon the armory and Mayor Beckham shot,
But soon Virginia's riflemen made your quarters hot.
For you're always mobbing, &c.

A gallows then was built and though you tried to frown,
The patriotic people said, the felon's "done up Brown."
He was always mobbing, &c.

A few more days elapsed, and you gave a second look,
And lo! upon the scaffold swung Mr. Johnny Cook.
For he was mobbing, &c.

They put them in their coffins and hauled them to the spot,
Where they must lie forever, and as traitors, felons, rot.
For they're now done mobbing, &c.

Then hear ye black republicans, the people all have said,
If you don't quit your treason, you're politically dead.
You must all quit mobbing, &c.

And though you say Brown's gallows is "glorious as the cross,"
You'll find the Presidency will next year be your loss.
For you're always mobbing, &c.

For in the year of sixty, the Democrats will rise,
And hang as high as Haman all that yelp your traitor cries.
For you're always mobbing, &c.

Bedford Bible Society.

At a meeting of this Society, on Saturday, 28th Jan'y last, at the Rooms of the Rev. John Lyon's Classical Institute, it was

Resolved, That the members of churches and the citizens of Bedford generally, are earnestly requested to make known any instance of destitution of the Holy Scriptures within their knowledge, to one of the Lady Managers of the Bedford Bible Society, or to the Treasurer, Sam'l Shuck, through whom the party may be supplied.

Resolved, That the Lady Managers and Officers of the Bedford Bible Society, present their grateful acknowledgements to the gentlemen of the Young Men's Christian Association of Bedford for the handsome donation made by them to the funds of the society.

O. E. SHANNON, Secretary. } REV. JOHN LYON, President.

Defeat anticipated in 1860.

Under the head of "The Struggle of 1860," the New York Tribune discusses at length the condition of the Republican party. We quote:

"At the risk of being denounced as croaking and faint-hearted, we tell the Republicans of these United States that we believe they are to be beaten, and we fear badly beaten in the Presidential contest now opening, unless they soon organize in their several States, counties and townships or election districts and take comprehensive measures to place their views and objects so clearly and fully before the great body of their fellow-citizens as to secure thousands of votes that will otherwise be cast against them. Let us be specific." The "specific" part of the article is the giving away of the public lands.

THE STRUGGLE FOR SPEAKER.

MR. SMITH, OF NORTH CAROLINA NOMINATED.

The South Americans Voting for him.

U. S. CAPITOL, WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

SENATE.—The Senate was not in session today, having adjourned, last evening, till Monday next.

On motion of Mr. Maynard, the House decided to proceed to a vote for Speaker.

The House proceeded to vote for Speaker amid much excitement, Mr. Mallory, of Kentucky, having formally nominated Mr. Smith, of North Carolina.

Mr. Clemens, D., Virginia, said he had voted for Messrs. Bocock, Maynard, Millson, Scott and Gilmer, successively, in the expectation and hope in some degree to contribute to the restoration of harmony. He had gone out like the dove with the olive-branch, but found no spot to rest his foot in the wide waste of waters. He wished to go on no more voyages of discovery, but would vote for the gentleman who would concentrate the votes of his friends. When he voted for Mr. Smith yesterday, he was struck by surprise to find that while Mr Gilmer voted for his own colleague, (Mr. Smith) three other gentlemen of his own party consistently adhered to Mr. Gilmer. When he should discover that any gentleman acting with the twenty-three Southern Opposition members, could concentrate their support, and when the question shall occur as to the ninety odd Democrats joining them, he would consider the propriety of his course. For the present he acted for himself, and would vote for Mr. McRae.

Mr. Mallory replied that they had now received votes enough to insure the election of Mr. Smith, with the aid of the Democratic party. He announced to the House and the country that, in view of this state of the case, they would again present him as their candidate. Every member of the American party had voted for him. That was the understanding and the condition fixed upon. If all the Democrats had voted for Mr. Smith he could have been elected and the Republican nominee defeated. Let the country know the fact.

The South Americans voted for Mr. Smith, and various gentlemen seeing a prospect of an election, changed their votes for him. Some of them made brief explanations, stating that they desired to promote harmony and end the contest. Frequent applause and marked attention prevailed on all sides.

Messrs. Morris and Millward of Pennsylvania, Nixon, Scranton and Wood, who had heretofore voted for Mr. Sherman, now voted for Smith.

[Cries on the Republican side of "Announce the result!"]

Before the result was announced, there was a change in the current of feeling, Mr. John Cochrane rising to give reasons why he could vote for none but a Democrat.

Other explanations were made by Democrats for a change of their votes to Smith.

It was understood that Messrs. Lamar, of Mississippi, and Ashmore of South Carolina, severally changed their votes to Mr. Smith, the announcement of which was received with loud applause in the galleries and on the Democratic side.

Mr. Sickles, of New York, followed their example, saying he had voted for a National conservative man, and with a sincere desire to allay the existing agitation. [Applause.]

Mr. Craige of North Carolina, (who had uniformly voted for Mr. Bocock,) believing the contest was about to be ended, voted for Mr. Smith.

Mr. Clemens said that as Mr. Smith had received the vote of his own party, he would change his vote to Mr. Smith. [Applause.]

Mr. Branch of North Carolina, had no explanation to make, but expressed the hope that his colleague would be elected. He changed his vote accordingly.

Mr. Clark of New York, deemed it his duty to yield something of individual opinion to contribute to the repose of the country so far as that result can be effected by the organization of the House. Without waiving any political view, he gave his vote for Mr. Smith. [Applause.]

Mr. McRae, of Mississippi, and others changed their votes to Mr. Smith without making any explanations.

Mr. McClernand said at is was now in the power of the Democratic party proper to elect Mr. Smith, he changed his vote for him, and expressed the hope that the Democrats of the Northwest would give him their support.

Mr. Bocock said that he was always willing to unite on any sound man, and voted for Mr. Smith.

Other Democratic changes to Smith were made, with occasional remarks, some saying that they desired to give peace to the country and strike a blow at the "irrepressible conflict" party, preferring a National Whig to a sectional Republican.

Mr. Morris, of Illinois, said that if his vote could elect Mr. Smith, he would not give it.

Other explanations were made favorable to changes for Mr. Smith, and the most intense interest prevailed throughout the proceedings.

Mr. Cobb, of Alabama, made a humorous speech, by way of exhortation, to his dissenting political friends to come up and support Mr. Smith. He called attention to the fact that men of all parties voted for him. If gentlemen did not now avail themselves of the present opportunity they never would come nearer to electing a nominee opposed to the Republicans.

Mr. Ruffin, of North Carolina, as the only man standing aloof from the Southern phalanx, voted, after an explanation, for Mr. Smith, saying that he had been encouraged by his Northern Democratic colleagues to do so.

Messrs. English and Niblack, of Indiana, voted for Mr. Smith, as the contest had narrowed down between the Republicans and Americans.

Mr. Morris, of Illinois, wanted Mr. Smith to say for himself whether he repudiated the doctrines of the Know-Nothings; several Democrats stated that they heard this fact from his own lips.

Mr. Burnett, of Kentucky, thought that they ought to let patriotism rise above party in this crisis.

Mr. Morris, of Illinois; wanted Mr. Smith to answer the question.

Mr. Clemens and others objected to Mr. Smith responding.

Mr. Clemens said that he wanted a man to go into the Chair untrammelled as an honest man.

Still other votes were changed for Mr. Smith, and were greeted with applause.

Mr. Morris, of Illinois, finally came over to Mr. Smith, being satisfied that he was not a Know-Nothing. This was hailed with tremendous applause.

Several additional changes for Mr. Smith followed, among them Mr. John Cochrane, who said that he had learned that Mr. Smith was never a member of the Know Nothing party, but an Old Line Whig, and a representative of National principles. Applause.]

The interest increased as an election seemed apparent.

Mr. Barr changed his vote for Mr. Smith.

Mr. Sherman voted for Mr. Corwin, when Mr. Junkin changed his vote from Mr. Smith to Mr. Sherman, thus spoiling for the time the chance of an election.

Mr. Scranton withdrew his vote from Mr. Smith and put Mr. Corwin in nomination.

Cries of "too late"—great sensation ensued on all sides.

Mr. Morris, of Pennsylvania, understanding that the Republicans present Mr. Corwin, of Ohio, withdrew his vote for Mr. Smith and voted for Mr. Corwin!

Hisses from the galleries and the floor.—Great confusion prevailed.

Cries of "announce the vote!"

"SMITH WANTS TWO VOTES?"

Mr. Vallandigham, of Ohio, Cox of Ohio, have changed their votes to Mr. Smith.

Mr. Nixon changed his vote from Mr. Smith to Mr. Pennington, thus making the result further off.

Mr. Keitt commenced making a speech.

Mr. Dunn said that Mr. Keitt's remarks were designed to delay, in order to afford an opportunity to manipulate the tender-footed Democrats.

Mr. Keitt proceeded to expose the inconsistency of those who voted for and changed against Mr. Smith.

Mr. Keitt briefly reviewed the course of the retreating Pennsylvanians, who, he remarked, had said they were on the protective policy and not on the anti-slavery sentiment. They had said, 'Protect our interests and we will not molest your's." He (Mr. Keitt) was an out-and-out free trader, but did not stick on that issue. Nor should the little question of protection be brought to decide against a man who would maintain the Constitution.

Mr. Rust, of Arkansas, amid the prevalent confusion, called the attention of the country to what he considered a falsehood and fraud of those who had voted for Mr. Smith and then abandoned him.

Mr. Keitt said something more upon the subject and remarked that Mr. Smith had been elected but these gentlemen had unelected him. He spoke amid frequent interruptions from the Republicans, who considered his speech out of order.

[Cries from the Republican side, "Announce the vote!"]

Mr. Vallandigham said that when he had voted for Mr. Smith his vote would have elected him. Since that, by a fraudulent change of vote, the result had been altered. But he took the responsibility, and wanted his vote to stand.

The result was finally announced.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Caution the parent of safety. A word of hope.—Delicate females expanding into the full bloom of womanhood are frequently condemned by a false polity of society to be the lingering victims of complicated disorders; or prevented by their timid and sensitive natures, or the reprehensible neglect of mothers from acknowledging the cause of their ailments. How many girls have been consigned to the cold and pitiless embrace of death through sheer ignorance, or that want of confidence which should exist between parent and offspring. When mothers behold their daughters droop—the pallor of the lily substituted for the bloom of the rose—the dim and lack lustre eye—the gradual emaciation of the body—let them take heed—a crisis has arrived which demands their utmost vigilance and solicitude; Holloway's Pills are an effectual remedy for these manifold complaints.

MARRIED.

On the 26th ult., at the Mengel House, by the Rev. H. Heckerman; Mr. Samuel Mortimore, to Miss Honor Heavner, both of West Providence township.

On the evening of the 25th ult., at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. Daniel Williams, Mr. B. Beale, of Galton, Ohio, to Miss Margaret Sill, of Bedford co.

☞The happy pair have our earnest wishes for their future welfare and prosperity. Long may they live to enjoy their wedded bliss, and when at last shall come the "inevitable hour," may life's setting sun find them contented and happy, even as one "who wraps the drapery of his couch around him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

By the Rev. Thomas Heyden, on the 17th of January, at the residence of the bride's father, in Bean's Cove in this county, Mr. Peter Mattingly, of Will's Creek, to Miss Sarah E. Donahoe.

Also, by the same and at the same place and time, Mr. Thomas Mattingly, of Will's Creek, to Miss Ann Theresa Donahoe, daughter of Mr. Thomas Donahoe, of Bean's Cove, in this county.

DIED.

On the 9th inst., in Mifflintown, Andrew G. Allison, formerly connected with the Juniata Register, in the 31st year of his age. Mr. A. was a man of fine abilities and was esteemed by all who knew him.

FITS! WHY PROMINENT.

For a long time there was a paragraph making its regular weekly appearance in our columns with the brief, but emphatic words "Fits! Fits!" always at the head, to some an offensive caption, but not so to the benevolent and humane, who could sympathize in the sorrows of others. Some persons are shocked at any indication of disease, and are even thrown into nervous excitement on witnessing a hearse or a coffin. Such are to be pitied. We should always strive to look disease and even death in the face with calmness, and especially take every opportunity for alleviating disease. Viewed in this light, the advertisements of S. S. Hance, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., possess a certain interest, and those who know of any one suffering from Epilepsy, Spasms, or Fits of any kind, should feel it a pleasure to cut out his advertisement, or in some other way send word to the afflicted of the great value of his remedies. They can be sent to any part of the country by mail. Price, $3 per box. Two, $5. Twelve, $24.

IT IS A common observation that there are more sufferers from debility among Americans, than can be found among any other civilized nation.—The reason is obvious. We take too little exercise, and forget the wants of the body in the absorbing pursuits of business. In all such cases, ordinary medicines can do little good. What is required is just such a tonic and invigorator as Dr. J. Hostetter has given to the world, in his Celebrated "Bitters." The weak and nervous denizen of the counting-house, the exhausted toiler upon the shop-board, and the prostrated student of the midnight lamp, have found a wonderful regenerator in the "Bitters," and prefer it to more pretentious, but less efficacious medicines. But it should not be forgotten that the agent which is so magical in its influence upon a frame which is so debilitated, is equally powerful in assisting nature to expel the most terrible forms of disease. Who will not give it a trial?

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

☞See advertisement.

MRS. VANDERBILT, NO. 185 SUFFOLK ST., SAYS OF DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS:

☞Being unwell, and not knowing whether it proceeded from derangement of the liver, or merely hysterics, I was persuaded to purchase a box of Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburg, and before I had used them all was entirely relieved. I am now enjoying perfect health, and cheerfully recommend Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills to all similarly afflicted.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

IT is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

HOW LOST. HOW RESTORED.

Just Published, in a sealed Envelope,

On the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness and Involuntary Emissions, Impotency and Mental and Physical Incapacity.

BY ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.,
Author of "The Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without Medicine and without dangerous Surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal to any address, post paid, on the receipt of two postage stamps, by addressing Dr. CH. J. C. KLINE, M. D., 489 first Avenue, New York Post Box 4586.

Hardware, Farm Implement, AND IRON STORE.

STOCK SELECTED WITH THE GREAT EST CARE AND sufficiently large to meet the wants of the people of Bedford co. Every exertion made to please, both in goods and prices.

FOR CASH, all goods in my line sold as low as they can be got in Cumberland or Hollidaysburg, and many things cheaper. CASH buyers favored particularly. Six month buyers not quite so well liked, but if prompt in payment, will find their bills O. K., to their entire satisfaction. As my priced are fixed for the two classes of customers names above, I have no prices to suit that class, whether rich or poor, who contract debts for their executors to pay, or the limitation to liquidate. So that those whose credit is not very good and who are slow in paying debts, or get mad when dunned, will please buy for CASH, or produce, or not at all—as I have lost enough and am tired dunning such customers.

MARK THESE FACTS!

THE TESTIMONY OF THE WHOLE WORLD.

Holloway's Ointment.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores and Ulcers.

All description of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is a folly; for should the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition remains underneath to break out with tenfold fury in a few days. The only rational and successful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound, and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Ointment, as salt is forced into meat.

Diptheria, Ulcerated Sore Throat, and Scarlet and other Fevers.

Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient; it will soon penetrate, and give immediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth must operate upon the whole system ere its influence can be felt in any local part whereas the Ointment will do its work at once.—Whoever tries the ungeunt in the above manner, for the diseases named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest and throat, will find themselves relieved as by a charm.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures.

The above class of complaints will be removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then most effectually rubbing in the Ointment. Persons suffering from these direful complaints lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though palpable to the eye. There fagain bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only sure treatment for females, cases of cancer in the stomach, or where there may be a general bearing down.

Indiscretions of Youth;—Sores and Ulcers.

Blotches, as also swellings, can, with certainty be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way they only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humour from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time with the use of the Pills to ensure a lasting cure.

Dropsical Swellings, Paralysis and Stiff Joints.

Although the above complaints differ widely in their origin and nature, yet they all require local treatment. Many of the worst cases, of such diseases, will yield in comparatively short space of time, when this Ointment is diligently rubbed into the parts affected, even after every other means have failed. In all serious maladies the Pills should be taken according to the printed directions accompanying each box.

Both the Ointments and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs,	Fistulas,
Bad Breasts,	Gout,
Burns,	Glandular Swellings,
Bunions,	Lumbago,
Bites of Moschetoes and Sand-Flies,	Rheumatism,
Coco-bay,	Scalds,
Chiego-foot,	Sore Nipples,
Chilblains,	Sore-throats,
Chapped Hands,	Skin Diseases,
Corns (Soft)	Scurvy,
Cancers,	Sore-heads
Contracted and Stiff Joints,	Tumors,
Elephantiasis,	Ulcers,
	Wounds,
	Yaws.

☞CAUTION!—None genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

*Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cts and $1 each.

☞There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

The great standard medicines of the present age, have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases; and the people have pronounced them worthy.

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Debility of the Nervous System, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or weakness of the stomach and digestive organs, are speedily and permanently cured by the GERMAN BITTERS.

The Balsamic Cordial has acquired a reputation surpassing that of any similar preparation extant. It will cure, WITHOUT FAIL, the most severe and long-standing

Cough, Cold, or Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup, Pneumonia, Incipient Consumption, and has performed the most astonishing cures ever known of Confirmed Consumption.

A few doses will also at once check and cure the most severe Diarrhœa proceeding from COLD IN THE BOWELS.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON & Co., No. 418 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and are sold by druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere, at 75 cents per bottle. The signature of C. M. JACKSON will be on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

In the Almanac published annually by the proprietors, called EVERYBODY'S ALMANAC, you will find testimony and commendatory notices from all parts of the country. These Almanacs are given away by all our agents.

REV. JOHN LYON, T. LYTTLETON LYON, A. M., } PRINCIPALS.

THE Winter session of this institution will open on Friday, the 2d day of December, 1859.

It is the design of the Principals, to make this Academy, in all respects, a first class Institution, for the thorough instruction of youth of both sexes, and to prepare them for any profession or position in life.

The high moral and scientific tone of the school is well known to this community, and a strict discipline will be enforced.

A few boys, (the number is limited to ten,) will be received into the family of the Principals, as boarders.

The beauty of the scenery and the salubrity of the climate render Bedford a most desirable location for such a school.

Persons from abroad, visiting at the Springs, can be near their children during the summer.

It is desirable that pupils should enter at the commencement of the session, and no pupil will be received for less than one quarter.
